

Beachbombing announce activity's for credible Ibiza package

There's little worse than arriving on holiday only to be coaxed by a holiday rep into joining an overpriced booze cruise, bar crawl and 'Spanish night'.

Thankfully for those going on Beachbombing, the Ibizan spin-off to the ever popular Snowbombing holidays, the activities they have planned for their September White Isle invasion are a lot more credible.

They include seeing The Whip, Hervé and Sinden play at Ibiza Rocks Hotel, a party in San Ans abandoned zoo, a fancy dress pool party with the Cuban Brothers and Manumissions Closing Party.

Tickets start at £149 from www.beachbombing.com
