As another Ibiza season rises over the horizon and crashes onto the sandy shores, there's an air of anticipation for new arrival BEACHBOMBING 2008.

Beachbombing Ibiza has lit the fuse on what is set to be the most diverse, wild and extravagant 5 days to hit the streets, beaches and pools of Ibiza's golden coasts in years!

With the legendary Snowbombing as a benchmark for the brand's inimitable party ethics Beachbombing is taking no prisoners for this year's inaugural Ibiza event and setting a precedent for the island's famed closing parties with a line up, just announced, that should paint the right picture.

First out of the hanger bay doors is a Snowbombing veteran and favourite, the world renowned and award winning Kraffy Kuts who will be cutting up his delectable Breakbeat, electro and Hip hop melee under the blistering rays of the Balearics throbbing sun. No introductions are necessary for one the UK's grandest breakbeat and house duo's over the last decade, the sublime Freestylers who will be mixing up their mint breakbeat and numerous top 40 hits over the last decade like a Mojito on the rocks of Ibiza's east coast.

Sticking with its ethos of delighting crowds with the finest and most cutting edge DJ's and artists the world has to offer, Beachbombing lays on your lap one the most exciting and lauded DJ's gracing Dj booths across the globe right now, the sublime Herve. Herve has already been championed by Annie Mac and Pete Tong and been commissioned exclusive mixes for the likes of Rosin Murphy, Chemical Brothers and New Young Pony Club and has already received his first number 1 on the dance chart with the dance floor monster 'Beeper'. No Beachbombing line up is content without an addition that personifies the Beachbombing mantra. Fresh from absolutely ripping Snowbombing apart and reaping praise from all quarters The Whip will be making their Ibiza debut thrashing out their unique blend of discohouse, pop and electronica as well as ripping up the party atmosphere without even picking up their instruments.

And this is only just the start, as there's plenty more line-up additions, entertainment and special parties to be announced, and with the likes of ERICK MORILLO, GROOVE ARMADA, PETE TONG, BASEMENT JAXX, ROGER SANCHEZ & clubs including CREAM & MANUMISSION closing parties all on the island at the same time as Beachbombing sails in it's only going to get louder, lewder, hotter and down right naughtier.

With beds in the Ibiza Rocks Hotel filling faster than a free Led Zeppelin gig at Hugh Hefner's House, Beachbombing has bagged a few larger studio's. These 4 bed apartments are also priced £149 but get in quick as they'll soon be gone quicker than One Eyed Willy with your gold pieces.

If bling's your ting, and decadence your middle name you can book yourself a Superior room right here and now; these crucial cribs are for 2 people and have higher grade furnishings with twin beds in the main lounge, a double terrace with pool view, plasma screen TV, use of an X-Box games console (subject to deposit), plus fresh fruit and flowers on arrival and maid service and fresh towels every day. Now quite what you'd do with either fresh fruit or flowers in Ibiza is another story, but the double terrace with pool view is certainly got 'PULLING FACTOR' writ large on your sun burnt forehead.

BEACHBOMBING IS ON SALE NOW. Places are limited, so mosey onto www.beachbombing.com for exclusive booking info and news and grab yourself an early bargain with 4 nights including accommodation and entertainment costing just £149. So start your grinning and drop your linen as Beachbombing Ibiza is laying it all out for you to receive happy ending without even having to go for the massage.
