11/06/2008

As another Ibiza season approaches, look for exciting new arrival BEACHBOMBING 2008, featuring the likes of Krafty Kuts, Freestylers, Herve and more.

Beachbombing Ibiza is set to be the most diverse, wild and extravagant 5 days to hit the streets, beaches and pools of Ibiza's golden coasts in years!

With the legendary Snowbombing as a benchmark for the brand's party vibe, Beachbombing is taking no prisoners for this year's first Ibiza event with a fantastic line up, just announced.

Ibiza Beachbombing Festival: Beachbombing Lineup

The world renowned and award winning Krafty Kuts will be cutting up his delectable Breakbeat, electro and Hip hop under the blistering rays of the Balearic sun.

No introductions are necessary for one the UK's grandest breakbeat and house duos over the last decade, the sublime Freestylers who will be mixing up their breakbeat and numerous top 40 hits over the last decade like a Mojito on the rocks of Ibiza's east coast.

Also on offer, gracing Dj booths across the globe right now, is the sublime Herve, already championed by Annie Mac and Pete Tong and commissioned exclusive mixes for the likes of Rosin Murphy, Chemical Brothers and New Young Pony Club. He's already received his first number 1 on the dance chart with the dance floor monster 'Beeper'.

Fresh from absolutely ripping Snowbombing apart, The Whip will be making their Ibiza debut thrashing out their unique blend of discohouse, pop and electronica as well as ripping up the party atmosphere without even picking up their instruments.

And this is only just the start, with plenty more line-up additions, entertainment and special parties to be announced.

And with the likes of ERICK MORILLO, GROOVE ARMADA, PETE TONG, BASEMENT JAXX, ROGER SANCHEZ & clubs including CREAM & MANUMISSION closing parties all on the island at the same time as Beachbombing, it's only going to get louder, hotter and downright naughtier.

Ibiza Beachbombing Festival: Beachbombing Tickets and Accommodation

Tickets cost just £149 including 4 nights accommodation. With beds in the Ibiza Rocks Hotel filling fast, Beachbombing has also bagged a few larger studios. These 4 bed apartments are also priced £149 per person but get in quick as they'll soon be gone.
