Ibiza Rocks Hotel

£149 (includes 4 nights of accommodation and event wristband)

As Ibiza's clubbing season draws to a close, Beachbombing explodes onto the scene with five hedonistic days of rock gigs and pool parties at the recently-opened Ibiza Rocks Hotel. Pack plenty of fancy dress accessories for the themed events.

This is clubbing for the truly decadent - simply roll out of bed into the parties and concerts on the hotel premises. For those who do want to venture out, there are also exclusive bashes at some of the other clubs on the island, as well as boat parties.

Keep an eye on the Beachbombing website for breaking news on this year's line-up.
